Dear Assyrians,

Today is the time for unity, unanimity and integration. Today the Assyrian land and nation are waiting for a historical movement. Today Assyria, our ancestral land, is in need of our combined ambitions and efforts. Assyria with its glorious culture and civilization and with its historical monuments and ancient inscriptions is in need of all of our supports to survive. You, the Assyrians who are of the same religion (Syriacs, Chaldeans, and Jacobites), belief, language, and of the same nation, should realize that today the land of Assyria is striving for the last and only historical chance. In order to save and restore the ancient Assyrian civilization, this opportunity needs the help and support of every one of us. Dear Assyrian, realize that this chance and opportunity has come about due to the fall of the dictatorship of Saddam Hussein's regime, and most importantly it will never be repeated again. Assyria and Assyrians must reap the benefits of it, and should take full advantage of this monumental opportunity.

And again be ware that after so many years of vagrancy, no place has yet been considered for us in the map of the Middle East and now the long time enemies of this nation are lurking a chance to deliver their last stroke on this nation's dynasty and existence. We must not forget that in the bitter years of the massacres and genocides, what these enemies pretending to be friends did to this nation. The bloods of our dearest martyrs are still warm in Semali, Mosul, Arbil and Ankawa. The screams and cries of long live Assyria by Yosip and the many Assyrian martyrs, who were the foundation of the Assyrian Democratic Movement, are still ringing in our ears.

Now to safeguard and honor the blood shed of Assyrian martyrs, the Assyrian civilization, our culture, and in confirmation of the unaltered principles of the declarations issued in Turkey, Georgia, Sweden, the Netherlands, Iraq and the United States of America by the Assyrian societies all over the world, we want to invite all of your esteemed selves to the Assyrian Universal Conference which will be held in Tehran, Iran. This Conference will take place from July 24th to July 26th, 2007 with the presence of all Assyrian political parties, groups, organizations, societies and individuals.

As someone who is aware of his history and religion, I see it as my duty to extend my hand to you and am hopeful that you would join me and my fellow Assyrian nationalists in this Conference to help achieve a common goal.

Our goal is to have one leadership for our nation in our own ancestral homeland. Frankly, I believe those who are busy fighting and playing the games of my organization vs. your organization, my group vs. your group and etc are wasting valuable time and are traitors for not taking advantage of this last opportunity and uniting to achieve what should be a common goal: One homeland (our ancestral one) and one leadership.

The main goal and objective of this Conference is building and planning future strategies for our nation. For this reason and for avoiding any confusion you are kindly asked to announce your attendance and also keep us informed of your opinions by June 5th, 2007. In order to avoid any disorganization and due to sensitivity of time, any suggestions and ideas received after this date will not be considered.

Be certain that your attendance and expertise as a member of this union will be valued and remembered in the history of our great nation.

Respectfully yours,

Yonathan Betkolia
Assyrian Representative in Iranian Parliament
Assyrian Universal Alliance – Secretary Chapter of Asia
